OME LAUNCHES ENERGY IN THE MEDITERRANEAN 2013 PROGRAMME - ENERMED 2013

OME is now officially registered as a training organization. The Association thus confirms its expertise in providing and organizing training activities through ENERMED programme, in addition to the organization of conferences, seminars, and various meetings dealing with all energy issues in the Mediterranean.

ENERMED is a training program designed for participants from member companies and interested stakeholders. It is intended for engineers, economists, energy and policy analysts ...etc. from both public and private sectors.

Training courses are given by senior experts from OME, energy companies and high level experts from other institutions.

A certificate is delivered by OME at the end of each session. ENERMED is eligible as part of the on-going vocational training.¹

ENERMED sessions for 2013 are:

- Energy statistics and balances.
- Renewable energy in the Mediterranean.
- Regulatory framework of the electricity sector in the euro-Mediterranean region.
- Future natural gas supplies and routes to Europe.
- Other topics on request.

Most of ENERMED sessions take place at OME offices located at:

105, rue des Trois Fontanot - Axe Etoile Building (2nd floor)
92000 Nanterre - France
